Mrs Carlson To Address Victor Club

Mrs. Paul Carlson, wife of Dr. Carlson, a missionary slain in the Congo, will be the guest speaker at the Victor Women's Club meeting to be held Tuesday, May 10, at 8 p.m. at the Victor School cafeteria, Torrance.

It will be a program of great importance, for she will tell how just before American paratroopers arrived to free the city of Stanleyville, crowds of European and American citizens were riddled with bullets by the rebels.

She will show slides of her husband taken from his camera after his death.

Dr. and Mrs. Carlson served 18 months in the Republic of Congo under the Evangelical Covenant Church of America. Before his African mission work, Dr. Carlson interned at Harbor General Hospital, Carson, and practiced at the Redondo Medical Clinic.

All women residing in the area are urged to attend. Anyone wishing further information may call Mrs. William Drale.

Program Planned for Bolotin-Engelhorn Madrecitas Event Wedding Solemnized

Marguerite Bosse, soprano, will highlight the program at a "Brunch" held by Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild, tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. James B. Woodford, Jr., 2308 Via La Brea, Palos Verdes Estates.

Miss Bosse, a past winner of the Los Angeles Music Teachers' Assn. contest, studies locally with Hans Clemens, and Carl Ebert. A graduate of the Conservatory of Milan, she made her operatic debut in Europe in 1952 and has appeared with many companies both here and abroad, and has 25 operatic roles in her repertoire. In recent years, Miss Bosse has toured with the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera.

For her program she has chosen French art songs by Debussy and several popular Puccini arias. She will be accompanied by Eleanor Jia-coletti. In private life she is the wife of John Carroll and mother of three active youngsters. They reside in the Hollywood Riviera. Program Chairman Mrs. Arthur L. Zygmunt is being assisted by Mmes. James B. Woodford Jr. and John Dougherty.

Another salient part of the afternoon will be the announcement, by Mrs. David B. Congleton, president, of Las Madrecitas as one of the five philanthropic organizations participating in the Preview Benefit opening of Bullocks Fashion Square on Wednesday, Sept. 7. At a recent luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Congleton the following committee for the opening was appointed: Mmes. Wyman G. Reynolds, co-chairman, Edward A. Sokolski, co-chairman, Robert Friedson, reservations; Jack Koehler, publicity.

All proceeds raised by Las Madrecitas from this benefit will go towards fulfilling the $33,000 pledge the group has made to help equip the Pediatric Ward of the Orthopaedic Hospital.

In a double ring marriage ceremony at 11 o'clock on Saturday, April 23, at the Pacific Unitarian Church in Palos Verdes, Mrs. Joan B. Bolotin, 22717 Linda Dr., Torrance, became the bride of Mr. Richard W. Engelhorn of Los Angeles.

The Rev. Al Hendrickson officiated at the wedding, which was attended by relatives and close friends.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a mint green silk suit and a corsage of yellow orchids.

Mrs. Ted Cook served as the matron of honor wearing a paisley print gown. William Edson served as best man.

A reception was held at the Golden Hull restaurant where guests enjoyed a buffet and dancing to music furnished by an accordionist.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in San Francisco and are now at home at 22717 Linda Dr.

The new Mrs. Engelhorn, a resident of Torrance for 20 years, formerly taught in the Torrance School System. She is now teaching at the South Elementary School in Redondo.

Mr. Engelhorn is vice president of the National Storage Co. in Los Angeles.
